Some data about Amazonas:

Amazonas is located in the Northern Region, being the largest state in Brazil in territorial extension, with an area of 1,559,146,876 km², constituting the ninth largest subdivision in the world, being larger than the areas of France, Spain, Sweden and Greece combined. It is the sixteenth largest country in the world in territorial area, higher than Mongolia.

The Gross Domestic Product (GDP) of Amazonas is the 15th largest in Brazil, US$ 21.4 billion in 2016, while the per capita GDP was US$ 5.350. Pará and Amazonas together account for approximately 70% of the Brazilian northern economy.

Boat transportation is the most relevant kind of transportation in the Amazonas counties.

Number of Counties: 62
Population in 2019: 4.144.597
(about 2% of the Brazilian population)

In 2017 began the construction of the second boat laboratory of the Institute of Weights and Measures of the State of Amazonas (IPEM/AM), a vessel that became a reference in the world.

The expansion of IPEM/AM through fluvial laboratories facilitates the interior manufacturers, who need certification for their products.

One of the boat surveillance units operates on metrology and research linked to international water and food regulation agreements another operates on water and food research in the Amazon region.

IPEM/AM performs inspection services at gas stations, commercial scales, prepackaged products, certified products (toys, helmets, lighters, fire extinguisher), blood pressure equipments, in addition to guidance to consumers and entrepreneurs through Inmetro booklets.

Besides that, the boat issues ID cards, performs marriages, baptisms and other civil an human right services.

In the first 6 months, the Boat unit visited more than 45 Amazon cities through the Juruá, Solimões, Madeira and low Amazonas rivers. During this period, more than 3,000 instruments were verified and 1,200 establishments received technical guidance.
